

Special rules, measures and procedures for stay in Camp SCOUT - Struga during the KOVID19 pandemic

1. The health, safety and protection of our guests and camp staff is our first priority.
2. If you feel any of the symptoms of KOVID19, before coming to the camp, please let us know and together we will try to find another suitable timing for your vacation. If this means a complete cancellation of the vacation, the previously paid amount will be fully refunded.
3. When arriving at the camp and during registration and admission, please respect the recommendations for protection from KOVID19, which, among other measures, requires for the mandatory wearing of a protective mask and disinfection of hands at the entrance.
4. At the reception of each guest in the camp, the staff is obliged to measure her/his body temperature, and the receptionist reserves the right to refuse to receive a guest and to act according to the working protocol for KOVID19, if he suspects the health condition of the guest.
5. During your stay in the camp, if you experience any symptoms that may indicate a potential infection from KOVID19, please inform the reception desk, who will take appropriate measures within the KOVID19 protection procedures.
6. During the stay in the camp, disinfection and personal hygiene items are provided in all common rooms. The staff in the camp is trained and fully respects the protocols for disinfection and maintenance of hygiene in all common areas and all the equipment available to the camp.
7. All accommodation facilities: rooms, cottages and tents owned by the camp are disinfected and thoroughly cleaned before each arrival of guests.
8. In order to protect the health of the guests, when registering your stay at the reception, you will receive a clean set of sheets that you, on your own, should take it and place it in your room/cottage/tent. Also, when leaving, we kindly ask you to take the sheets out of the beds and put them in a specially designated areas intended and marked for that purpose.
9. Please keep a distance from the other guests in the camp and maintain regular personal hygiene, so that we all have a peaceful and uninterrupted vacation.

Thank you for taking care for the health of all of us 😊

We wish you a pleasant stay in Camp SCOUT in Struga
